LB 451
LR 225-229

New resolution by Senator Withem, Scofield and Morehead. (Read introductions to LRs 228 and 229 as found on pages 2426-28 of the Legislative Journal.) That will be laid over, Mr. President. And that's all that I have, Mr. President.

SPEAKER BARRETT: While the Legislature is in session and capable of transacting business, I propose to sign and I do sign LR 225, LR 226 and LR 227. Also I'd like to introduce a guest of Senator Frank Korshoj's under the south balcony, Bev Lydick, a friend of Senator Korshoj. Would you please stand. Thank you, Bev, we're glad to have you with us this afternoon. Mr. Clerk, I'd like to move over the next bill, LB 184. Senator Warner is excused until he arrives. If there is no objection, we'll go to 451.

CLERK: Mr. President, 451, the first item I have are Enrollment and Review amendments.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Senator Moore.

SENATOR MOORE: Mr. President, I move we adopt the E & R amendments to LB 451.

SPEAKER BARRETT: You've heard the motion to adopt the E & R amendments to 451. Those in favor say aye. Opposed no. Carried, they are adopted.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Wesely would move to amend the bill by adding the emergency clause.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Senator Wesely, please.

SENATOR WESELY: Thank you, Mr. Speaker, members, LB 451 is the model perjury code that came out of Judiciary Committee and it's simply felt that we needed the emergency clause to make sure it applies as soon as possible. That is all that this amendment would do is add the E clause.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Thank you. Senator Chambers, would you care to discuss the Wesely amendment?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Question, Senator Wesely, would this bill...if this bill becomes law would it apply to everybody whether they are a civilian or a politician?
